i2Lab Industrial Innovations

THE NEW INNOVATIVE START-UP OF THE SEDAPTA GROUP IS BORN

Genoa, November 23rd 2021 - sedApta Group is pleased to announce the establishment of i2Lab Srl. The new company has been set up by A&C Consulting Srl and Atomos Hyla SpA, a sedApta Group company specialized in consulting services and integrated technological solutions in the Supply Chain area.

The new company can count on a team of experts who have been working successfully for more than 20 years in Italian and international manufacturing companies. A team of experts with exclusive skills in the industrial and services sectors, in terms of technologies, experience and processes knowledge.

Our company offers consulting services for the design, implementation and commissioning of integrated solutions for Industry 4.0, with the corresponding maintenance services for mission-critical applications. It supports companies in their journey towards digital transformation.

"Our customers are experiencing a deep transformation of digitalization of business processes" says Alberto Costanzo, CEO of i2Lab. "The integration of IT and OT technologies can create an interconnected ecosystem in which all business assets, such as people, machines, equipment and products, can generate and exchange data, with the aim of improving the competitiveness of the company and the entire supply chain. Enterprises are investing mainly on Industrial Internet of Things, the real engine of the whole 4.0 paradigm, analytics able of processing big data, artificial intelligence and cybersecurity, also because a smart and always connected company is exposed to high risks of external attacks. This is why the collaboration with Atomos Hyla and sedApta Group was born; the goal is to help our customers in their digital transformation journey."

"The deep and consolidated skills and specializations of the team of consultants make the inclusion of i2Lab in the sedApta Group the necessary extension and evolution of the company know-how." comments Giorgio Cuttica, CEO of the sedApta Group and President of the new company. "This is fully part of our goal of managing an increasingly effective and innovative service level, in collaboration with other companies already present in the Group both in Italy and abroad, in order to support customers towards a more complete digital transformation."
